

Staffing • Training • Safety • Payroll

Work in confined spaces and lockout procedures

The learner will be able to follow defined occupational health and safety policies and procedures relating to entering confined spaces and ensure own safety and that of others in the workplace. The learner, without supervisory responsibilities, will be able to: Identify the location, and work procedure to be carried out.

- Examine an entry plan for completeness, and enter, complete work and withdraw from a confined space.

Course Details:

Duration: 1 Day

Accredited: No

Certification: Attendance

Minimum Group: 6

Maximum Group: 25

Unit Standard: None

Credits: None

NQF: None

COURSE INFORMATION

Course Outline:

- What is a Confined Space and what hazards exist in the space?
- Pre-Entry Checks into a confined space
- Requirements to Apply a Lockout System
- Emergency and Rescue Procedure
- Work Permit Samples

Target Audience: For all those working in confined spaces or managing safe lock-out procedures

What a Pleasure!

086 100 77 42

WWW.SRG.CO.ZA