

Staffing • Training • Safety • Payroll

Substance Abuse Management

Equip participants with the skills required to manage substance abuse in the workplace in terms of accommodating limitations, dealing with emergencies, providing the necessary facilities and being proactive in providing ongoing support. (A manager in the context of this Unit Standard is the manager of a small business and first line managers of business units, team leaders and supervisors in medium and large organisations. The term business unit implies a small business, cost centre, section or department)

Course Details:

Duration: 1 Day

Accredited: No

Certification: Attendance

Minimum Group: 3

Maximum Group: ∞

Unit Standard: Based on 244581

NQF: 2

Course Outline:

1. Recognising the signs and symptoms of substance abuse and addiction.
2. Describing the implications and consequences of substance abuse for the individual and the organisation.
3. Explaining the manager's role in dealing with intoxicated and addicted employees.
4. Explaining the recovery process and the implications for managers

COURSE INFORMATION

What a Pleasure!

086 100 77 42

WWW.SRG.CO.ZA